

COMINGS & GOINGS

Robert van Eyden

Thebe Securities has appointed Van Eyden as its new CEO. He replaces Likhapha Seliane, who resigned in February. Van Eyden was director of corporate & investment banking and head of research at Standard Bank.

Fundiswa Roji

Roji, a CA (SA) and executive director of Kagiso Ventures, has been appointed as a nonexecutive director of fleet manager MiX Telematics. Ex-FD Howard Scott becomes an executive director.

Adolfo Urso

He and four members of Silvio Berlusconi's coalition government have resigned, deepening the crisis surrounding the Italian prime minister. The four support Gianfranco Fini, who broke away over the summer.

Theo Vorster

Afri has named Vorster and Busi Mabuza as nonexecutive directors, nominated by Afri's BEE partner Agri Sizwe. Mabuza is a director of the Central Energy Fund; Vorster is CEO of Galileo Capital.

Gerald Chapman

Civil engineering group Protech Khuthele's founder and CEO will step down on November 30 and act as an adviser until March. Executive member and COO Julian Dovey takes over his role in the interim.