

DUO HELD AFTER HIJACKING

■ TWO homeless men were arrested after they hijacked a car in Bosman Steet, Pretoria at the weekend.

Matrix Vehicle Tracking spokesman Hannelie Snow said after the hijacking the victim was able to call the tracking company, who activated the tracker on the vehicle.

The recovery team and the police recovered the vehicle at Emperors Palace. The suspects were arrested.

Snow said money the driver left in the vehicle was found along with other money the suspects had withdrawn from the victim's bank account. – tlalanet@citizen.co.za

